

MA in International Economic Policy (MIEP) Professional Specialization: International Business and Finance (Sample of Relevant Classes)

Students pursuing this focus may find this list helpful. However, these are just suggestions. These courses have all been offered in recent semesters but specific offerings vary from semester to semester.

Students focusing on this area should choose the Accounting and Corporate Finance option within the MIEP core.

Sample of Relevant Classes—Some Departmental Restrictions Apply

ECON 6293 Emerging Markets Capital Flows and Crises

IBUS 6301 International Business Finance

IBUS 6201 International Marketing

IBUS 6202 Regional Strategy for Multinationals

IBUS 6297 International Management Experience

IBUS 6301 International Business Finance

IBUS 6308 International Reporting and Control

IBUS 6310 International Financial Reporting Standards

IBUS 6400 Oil: Industry, Economy, Society

IBUS 6401 International Business Strategy

IBUS 6402 Managing in Developing Countries

FINA 6221 Financial Decision Making/Advanced Corporate Finance

FINA 6222 Capital Formation

FINA 6223 Investment Analysis and Portfolio Management

FINA 6224 Financial Management

FINA 6239 Applied Portfolio Management

FINA 6234 New Venture Financing

DNSC 6259 Project Portfolio Management

DNSC 6250 Project Management Finance

IAFF 6186 Political Risk Analysis

IAFF 6198 Strategies and International Political Economy

IAFF 6318 Chinese Business Law