MISSION STATEMENT

The Elliott School of International Affairs Office of Academic Advising and Student Services empowers students to develop goals, navigate academic programs, utilize available resources, explore the field of international affairs, and become responsible global citizens.

DEFINITION OF ACADEMIC ADVISING

Academic advising is a series of intentional interactions between a student and an academic advisor that take place throughout a student’s educational career. These interactions encourage the student’s self-efficacy and “assist students in the development of meaningful educational goals that are consistent with personal interests, values and abilities” (NACADA, 2003). While students are ultimately responsible for creating their schedules and meeting all degree requirements, academic advisors serve as guides to students as they pursue their degree.

Ways to Engage the Advising Office

Advising Appointments with advisors can be scheduled online at http://elliott-ugrad-advising.youcanbook.me/. Appointments cannot be scheduled via email and same-day appointments cannot be accommodated. Whenever possible, cancellations should be made 24 hours in advance to enable another student to make use of that time.

Drop-In Advising is available weekdays during the fall and spring semesters from 2:00 to 4:00 pm. Drop-In advising is generally reserved for "quick questions," clarification on forms, and quick reference information. You will see the advisor on duty, which may or may not be your assigned advisor, and that advisors sees students on a first-come, first-served basis.

Examples of questions that can be covered during drop-in advising: Is it possible for me to take a class pass/no pass? What form do I use to declare a minor? Why am I not able to register for this course on GWEB?

Examples of questions that cannot be covered during drop-in advising and require an appointment: Am I on track to graduate? Is it possible for me to fit in a second major and still graduate on time? Can my study abroad courses count towards my requirements?

Expanded Drop-In Advising is available during the first two weeks of the fall and spring semesters and during registration as these are our peak advising times. During these times, all advisors are available on a first-come, first-served basis between the hours of 2:00 - 4:00 pm (as opposed to just one advisor on duty). All advisors still take scheduled appointments during these times outside of the 2:00 - 4:00 pm Drop-In Advising hours, and will still host their weekly advisor office hours.

In addition to the advising you receive from the professional academic advisors, the Elliott School offers supplemental advising from Peer Mentors. Peer Mentors are students like you, who can provide useful insight into many aspects of academic life at the Elliott School and GW. Peer Mentors hold office hours in the Academic Advising suite.

Emailing your advisor: Email is an additional way to communicate with your academic advisor. You are encouraged to email your academic advisor with brief questions and concerns; however, academic planning or involved issues require more time and students are better served by scheduling an appointment.
