

INTERNATIONAL POLITICS CONCENTRATION

DESCRIPTION

The International Politics concentration focuses on the formulation and implementation of states' foreign policies, relations between states, and the factors that affect international political cooperation and competition on a variety of global issues.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

- Be familiar with the key theories, concepts, and models in the field of international politics
- Understand how domestic and international factors shape the foreign policies and external behavior of states
- Be able to assess the effectiveness of foreign policies and to identify and evaluate different foreign policy options
- Be able to explain cooperation, competition, and conflict in international politics

REQUIREMENTS

One anchor course from the following:

- PSC 2440 Theories of International Politics
- PSC 2446 U.S. Foreign Policy

And four supporting courses listed under this concentration in the Bulletin.

Resources:

- <https://bulletin.gwu.edu/international-affairs/undergraduate-programs/ba-international-affairs/international-politics/>
- elliott.gwu.edu/undergraduate-academic-advising
- <https://careerservices.gwu.edu/career-option-sheets>
- advising@gwu.edu

Elliott