

IEP-MS : International Economic Policy

The following requirements must be fulfilled: 30 credits, including 9 credits in core courses, 12 credits in quantitative analysis, a 2-credit capstone course, and 7 credits in elective courses.

Students must demonstrate proficiency in intermediate microeconomics and macroeconomics and must have completed a minimum of one college-level course in calculus by the time of enrollment.

Code	Title	Credits
Required
Core courses (9 credits)
ECON 6283	Survey of International Trade Theory and Policy	3
ECON 6284	Survey of International Macroeconomics and Finance Theory and Policy	3
ECON 6294	Topics in Economic Development	3
Quantitative analysis (12 credits)
ECON 6300	Mathematical Methods for Economics	3
ECON 6374	Probability and Statistics for Economics	3
ECON 6375	Applied Econometrics	3
ECON 6376	Time Series Analysis	3

Capstone (2 credits)

Students complete a capstone project using econometric or mathematical economic models under the direction of the program director. The capstone course must be taken in the last semester of their plan of study.

IAFF 6899

Capstone Course

2

Electives

7 credits in elective courses selected in consultation with the program director. These courses should include at two 3-credit courses and one 1-credit professional skills course (IAFF 6502 or IAFF 6503).